Exhibitors' Remark

Mr. Koki Chiba

Manager Application Engineer

NGK Insulators, Ltd.

I think today for us to be one of the first ones from Japan to be present here. It is a very good opportunity to present our company and our benefits which can bring to the China market.

Mr. Ji Qing

Deputy President

Chinalco Central China Copper Co., Ltd.

It's the first time to attend CuChina. The event provides an opportunity for us to learn and communicate and trade. We will continue to participate in it.

Mr. Li Honglei

Deputy President

Chinalco Luoyang Copper Co., Ltd.

We participate in CuChina every year. It's been better and better. Our company will not miss CuChina 2010 in Shanghai.

Mr. Shangguan Qingping

Chairman & CEO

Fujian Zijin Copper Co., Ltd.

Every industry has its corresponding large-scale exhibition as its wind vane. There is no one within the copper industry at present. CuChina will be developed to be the vane in the copper industry.

Mr. Liao Caitang

Vice GM

Beijing Jin Ying Copper Products Co., Ltd.

This exhibition's atmosphere is great. I can't believe that there are many professional visitors here today. This is a good opportunity to exchange experiences and study from each other. We can have more information from other exhibitors via this expo, so we are all happy about this.

Mr. Wang Yongru,

Technical Director

Ningbo Jintian Copper (Group) Co.,Ltd.

CuChina has got a lot development from the first to now. It's the 2nd time for us to attend. We gain in abundant. We will take part in CuChina 2010 in Shanghai.

Mr. Frank Byus
Senior Vice President Sales
I2S Trade (Shanghai) Co.,Ltd.

The event is quite good. Although visitors are not so many, they are very professional. We collect much marketing information and make communications and relationships with some Chinese companies. Our company will put CuChina 2010 into consideration and looking forward to participating in it again.

Mr. Gary Shea
General Manager
Magnum Integrated Technologies

We make decisions to attend CuChina 2009 after last two years' visit and observation. We are quite satisfied with it. Its trade visitors are high quality and service is considerable. We will continue to participate in CuChina 2010 in Shanghai.
