POST SHOW REPORT

MOC 2008 Exhibition & Conference – Figures

The 2008 edition of the Mediterranean Offshore Conference has been a great success from several different perspectives as well as for all the people involved in the organisation. This claim is made in after having reviewed the feedbacks received after the closing of the 2008 event.

This overall success witnesses once again the importance of MOC for the offshore petroleum industry in general and mainly for the business and commercial relationships that bind the Northern and Southern shores of the Mediterranean Sea.

The participation of attendees from 20 countries from all over the world is the confirmation of this success, and according to the feedbacks, comments, and impressions collected from the participants most of them expressed their satisfaction for the overall general organisation, especially those who had exhibiting in the last two editions.

Please find below the relevant figures of MOC 2008 exhibition compared to the same figures of MOC 2006.

	MOC 2006	MOC 2008	Increase from 2006 to 2008
