2.3. What do our partners have to say?

"It was a very encouraging experience to have spoken at the Hospitality Trends forum. A chef's journey is not the easiest. The old world chef has always had to fight for what he believed in – especially in his knowledge and skill. The kitchen dynamics of yesterday are not the same today, so it is important for our youths to be given a conducive platform from which they are able to learn and take something away. A formal culinary arts education imparts this priceless experience. And it's always very encouraging to see more and more of the industry step up to recognize and support this. In all, the forum was positive and memorable for me"

*Christophe Megel
Chief Executive Officer
At-Sunrice Global Chef Academy*

"Wine & Gourmet Asia is an excellent venue for top chefs and fine-dining restaurants to showcase their skills and to strengthen expertise throughout the industry. I am delighted this opportunity exists to share the great food we make every day with a wider audience, and at the same time explore the explosion of new restaurants and cuisines in Macau."

*Peter Find,
Executive Director of Culinary Operations
Wynn Macau*

"We view Wine & Gourmet Asia as an excellent element in the evolution of Macau into a true leisure and tourist destination, broadening its appeal to a wider variety of tourists and gourmets from around the world. Wynn Macau is proud to be part of a unique event that raises the standards of cuisine and the profile of Macau in Asia."

*Thomas Connolly,
Executive Director (F&B)
