

SHOW REPORT

THE BIGGEST AND THE MOST SUCCESSFUL OGA EVER!

Oil and Gas Asia 2009 was the biggest in its history and the most comprehensive oil and gas show in the Asian region. An impressive 21,787 (an increase of 12% from OGA 2007) trade visitors from 57 countries visited OGA 2009 over the 3-day event from 10 - 12 June 2009 at Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre (KLCC).

Earning its title as the "Region's No.1 Oil and Gas Show", OGA 2009 comprised 1,337 participating companies from 49 countries worldwide and set the record of occupying a total space of 17,000sqm (an increase of 14% from OGA 2007) encompassing 6 exhibition halls in KLCC.

OGA 2009's success was under pinned by the participation of big names like Aker Solutions, Cameron, Delcom, ExxonMobil, Olio Resources, SapuraCrest, Scomi, Shell, Siemens, Sime Darby, Technip, UMW Oil & Gas, Tanjung Offshore and Weatherford among others.

A total of 10 Country Group Pavilions participated this time around and they were from Australia, Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Germany, Italy, Norway, The Netherlands, United Kingdom and United States of America, making OGA 2009 truly an international show.

OGA 2009 has proven once again its impeccable credentials with many exhibitors and visitors going home satisfied with the results. In fact, almost 90% of the OGA 2009 exhibitors have already requested to rebook space for OGA 2011!

10 COUNTRY GROUP PAVILIONS AT OGA 2009

AUSTRALIA

Supported by The Australian Trade Commission (Austrade) and the Oil and Gas Australia journal, the Australian pavilion at OGA 2009 was the first ever. The buoyant Australian oil and gas industry with the objective of penetrating the lucrative market in Asia brought in companies such as GASCO, Inflatable Packers and Jacks Winches.

AUSTRIA

Austrian Trade Kuala Lumpur which is part of the Foreign Trade Organisation of the Austrian Federal Economic Chamber maintains more than 100 offices worldwide by providing assistance in promoting trade, investment and economic cooperation between Malaysia and Austria. Participating companies included Erne Fittings GmbH, Geosat Technology Ltd. and LMF Maschinenfabrik GmbH & Co KG to OGA.

BELGIUM

The Wallonia Foreign Trade and Investment Agency (AWEX) is the Wallonia Region of Belgium's government agency in charge of foreign trade and investment promotion. The agency has a worldwide network of 105 Economic and Trade Companies. This year at OGA they represented: Balteau, Belsim, The Belgian Oil & Gas Group, Bocad, De Raedt and Hamon.

DENMARK

TofKo Business Development A/S is a Danish consultancy company specialised in helping small companies grow. TofKo is also the company behind Offshore Denmark, that arranged the participation of the Danish Pavilion at the main shows in the oil and gas industry. The exhibitors at OGA 2009 at the Danish Pavilion were Danfoss A/S Oil & Gas, CALSEP A/S, RO-Clean DESMI A/S, DESMI A/S, Densit A/S and Danish Marine & Offshore Group.

GERMANY

At OGA 2009, the German Group returned to showcase a variety of unique products and specialised services to assist the region's professionals. They provided the visitors with a thorough update on the current technology being produced by one of the world's most technically adept nations. Companies under the German Pavilion were GMT, KME Germany AG & Co. KG, MECON GmbH and Voith Turbo.

ITALY

The Italian Institute for Foreign Trade (I.C.E., Istituto nazionale per il Commercio Estero) is the Italian government agency entrusted with the promotion of trade, business opportunities and industrial co-operation between Italian and foreign companies. UK

The Energy Industries Council once again managed the UK pavilion at OGA 09 with over twenty UK companies under its wing. Due to the strong interest in this region, the EIC also had a trade mission to coincide with OGA where missioners had the opportunity to attend organised group meetings with local key players as well as in-market briefing meetings and networking receptions and of course time to visit OGA. Companies under the UK Pavilion were Advanced Sensors, Anson Ltd, Balltec Limited, Batt Cables Plc, Belzona Polymeric Limited, Bridon International Ltd, Broady Flow Control Ltd, Brown Mcfarlane Ltd, Centek Ltd, Ce-Test & Measurement (S) Pte Ltd, Crowcon Detection Instruments Ltd, Dk Jones Ltd, Energy Industries Council, Exheat Ltd, Hi-Force Ltd, Infield Systems Ltd, Oakley Steel Ltd, Opito, Rotech Subsea Ltd, Scopus Engineering Ltd, Scottish Development International, Shipharm Valves, Steel Plates and Section, Ultra Electronics SML Technologies and Zeta-PDM Ltd.

USA

IMEX Management organised the USA Pavilion at OGA 2009, representing fourteen U.S. companies and highlighting the most cutting-edge solutions to the challenges facing the global oil and gas community. The U.S. Commercial Service of the U.S. Embassy in Malaysia also hosted a business information office (BIO) booth within the USA Pavilion, providing onsite market counselling services for new entrants to the Malaysian oil and gas market. Companies under the USA Pavilion included ABS, CD Adapco, Grainger Inc, Hilti, Henry Technologies, ODS-Petrodata, Omni Flow Computers, Pepcon Systems, Petro-skills, Richards Industries, Strongwell, Superior Energy Services, Tradequip International and United Labs.

SUBSEA ASIA CONFERENCE

The Subsea Asia conference 2009 was held alongside the OGA exhibition with speakers from Perry Slingsby, First Subsea, Framo Engineering, NCS Survey, Deep Ocean Subsea Control Innovation and Flexlife. This highly focused programme organised by Subsea UK took place on 11 June 2009 at Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre. The conference was well attended by some 114 delegates.

WHAT EXHIBITORS HAD TO SAY...

"OGA seems to be the ideal platform to highlight Austrian quality products in the Oil and Gas Sector and introduce the Austrian Technology to the South East Asian Region."

Mrs Dorothea Winkelmayer
Trade Officer-Commercial Section of Austrian Embassy

"I am pleased to be at OGA 2009 where UMW Oil and Gas is one of the larger participants with 19 of our principals participating this time. We are sure of the success OGA 2009 will bring to UMW Oil and Gas as proven in the past participations. In fact, we are already speaking to the Organiser about our 2011 participation!"

Mr Zulkifly Zakaria, President & CEO
UMW Oil and Gas

"OGA has always been an important platform for us and we are delighted to be back for our fifth show - which as you can see is bigger and better. It's a great opportunity for us to meet all our clients and companies that we work with - all in one place."

Mr Clint Elgar, Group Chief Executive
Global Process Systems

"We offer fit for purpose and competitive technology services and equipment to improve our client's product performance. Our goals for participating at OGA 2009 are to meet industry leaders from across the globe. Upon meeting these leaders we hope to create awareness about our products and services, and improve upon our clientele."

Mr Hamidon Md Khayon
Executive Director
Tanjung Offshore Berhad

"OGA 2009 offered a great platform for business collaboration and networking in the Oil and Gas industry. It is a successful event for us and we are looking forward to OGA 2011."

Ms Yazliza Yazid
Manager-Corporate Affairs and Investor Relations
Delcom

"OGA provides very high value for money as always. For OGA 2009 we are showcasing Technip investment in technology products."

Mr Syed Feizal Syed Mohammad
Senior Vice President
Business Development
Technip Malaysia

WHAT EXHIBITORS HAD TO SAY...

"OGA has always been a very successful show for the UK exhibitors. We have been managing the UK group of this show for more than a decade and so far the response is good. We are happy to be back this year!"

Ms Susan Brown, Events Manager
The Energy Industries Council (EIC)

"Our exhibitors have already made numerous appointments with the interested main contractors and operators beforehand and hope to meet them and explore the possibility of business both short and long term."

Mr Mogens Tofte Koch, Managing Director
Offshore Denmark

"OGA is a very good platform for us to create good relationships with our customers, especially in terms of building PR for our company and the market. It also helps in building public awareness for everyone. The organisers of OGA are doing a great job of putting together the show and have been a great help to the exhibitors."

Ms Chew Yik Fei, Sales Coordinator
Asia Pacific Zone of Elliott Ebara Group

"I think OGA is an excellent platform as it is one of the largest exhibitions."

Loretta Leong, Spokesperson
MTU

"Maxflo is pleased to once again participate in OGA. We are pleased with the attendance despite the global downturn and will participate again in 2011."

Dato' Mizan Bin Yahya, Managing Director
Maxflo Energy Products Sdn Bhd

"We see OGA 2009 as a professionally managed exhibition with strong support from the Malaysian Government. We believe that OGA 2009 will provide a wider platform to enhance our brand and client connection."

Mr Gerard Mampaey, CEO
Mampaey
Offshore

"We have been long-standing participants at OGA, since the very first show as it is an essential exhibition for those involved in the oil and gas industry."

Mr Chandran Thambirajah, Country Manager
GL Industrial Services

"OGA is a great show and it is the largest and most successful. We feel it is the perfect platform to network with existing and potential clients as well as to promote brand awareness."

Ms Renee Hayes, Representative
Stainless Pipe and Fittings Australia

"The OGA Exhibition will allow us to showcase our measurement systems products as a consolidated group under the Cameron umbrella."

Ms Clive Samuel, Regional Manager, Asia Pacific
Cameron Valves & Measurement

"This is a fantastic exhibition with much potential and it provides a good platform to create awareness. We will definitely be returning to OGA 2011."

Mr Chan Seng Fond, Representative
Embassy of Belgium

"We are pleased with the response received thus far at OGA 2009. We try to expand our business beyond Singapore's shores and OGA is a great platform to do so. This is especially since Malaysia is one of the major centres of Oil & Gas and offers a lot of potential and contacts. Our participation has become quite important for our business."

Mr Jason Lee Kok Lin, Sales Manager
Rico Pte Ltd

"We intend to help all our companies do business on a global scale. I think OGA is a very good exhibition, it is quite large. We do not intend for this to be our first and only appearance. We plan to participate on a consistent basis, so our customers shall become more familiar with our presence. OGA 2011 is already in our calendar of forthcoming events."

Mr Ruud Liem, Business Development Manager
IRO Association

"OGA is a good platform to selectively showcase innovative products and services to this part of the world which we believe has a huge potential. I am satisfied with the organisers of OGA and am happy to be back!"

Mr Ewe Tuan Hai, Director
Innovation Norway

"OGA is the best place to show our products to the oil and gas industry!"

Mr Chai Hua, Marketing Director
Shenzhen Ocean's King Lighting Science & Technologies Co., Ltd.
